Their names, crimes and terms are as follows: Archibald Summerville, coi., forgery, two years; Haywood Todd, col., forgery, two years; John Mitchell, col., a'tempted rape, seven years; Geo. Staton, burglary, two years.

THOMASVILLE .- From the following original poetical effusion, sent to the DAILY NEWS for publication, we learn that Thomasville, a small but enterprising town in this State, can boast of its share of learned and distinguished men, whose greatness the world has not before acknowledged, but who will, since their praises are sung in verse, now enjoy the fame to which their merits entitle them. Our author has forgotten -casus omissus-to mention Thomasville's most essential and useful character-THE VILLAGE POET, whose lines published below have not only immortalized the literati and other eminent men whose virtues are therein commemmorated, but who has added a gem to the poetic literature of the town which deserves to be enshrined and preserved. But perhaps it was modesty in our author that caused the omission above referred to, and in order to make the poem complete, we add a stanza of our own-for the merit of which, if there is any, we claim due credit :

Of all the poets in the State, I'm sure I speak in candor, None can be found who will compare, In lun, with MERRY ANDREW-But we have already kept our readers too long from the aforesaid verses, and herewith append them without further introduction. Jesting aside, they are quite good in fact, as well as in fun: FOR FUN!

BY " MERRY ANDREW."

Of all the towns in all the land, I'm sure that none can boast So many names, now know to fame, As beacons on Time's coast, As Thomasville!

In Music there's " Professor Smith A name known eyerywhere— A genial, pleasaut lively man, Whom we could ill-ly spare From Thomasville!

Pil name "Professor Liebig" next, The Chemist who can tell How many pounds a hog did weigh, the lard just once to smell! At Thomasville!

"Professor Darwin," too, we boast, Of great and wide renown, who once a monkey was, 'tis true! But now a man full grown, In Thomasville!

We also have a " Doctor Ciarke" A commentator rare— His learning, hi.Lory, logic too, The people all may share, At Thomasville!

Another noted character,
I'll mention, near the last—
"Cheap John" who sells at lowest price,
And gets the "tin" so fast,
In Thomasville!

I'll speak of "Doctor Balwin" last— By no means, though, the least— Whose Scripture "symbols" are so fine, Whose "lectures" are a feast To Thomasville!

What town, I now repeat, can boast A galaxy so rare?
Of world-renowned and noted men,
Of gifts and talents rare,
As Thomasville?

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE. -The EDITORIAL CONVENTION-SECOND Semi-Annual Session of the State Coun- DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.—The Convention

cil of North Carolina was held in Statesville last week, an account of which appeared in the Intelligencer of that place. But as that paper has been misplaced, we are only able to give such items as we have gathered from delegates who participated in the proceedings.

The meeting was well attended, there being representatives from 23 Councils, located in the various sections of the State, reaching from the seaboard to the mountains, TOTTMA

Rev. George Badger Wetmore, an Episcopal Clergyman and a nephew of the late Hon. George E. Badger, of this city, is the President of the State Council and presided at the Statesville meeting. Numbers of that body who saw him in the Chair, accord to him great praise as a presiding officer. As temperance worker, Mr. Wetmore has but few equals; none can excel him in devotion to the cause he has espoused and which he is so ably and successfully advocating." A U D

During the last six months the Friends of Temperance have made a net increase of 20 new Councils and upwards of a thousand new members, over all losses and the reports of both the President and Secretary anticipate a much larger increase during the next six months.

The question of consolidating the Friends of Temperance with the new order recently organized in Tennessee, call the United Friends of Temperance, was discussed, but the State Council took no action further than to express opposition to any consolidation that loes not receive the sanction of a ma ority of the State Councils.

A committee, consisting of Rev. G. B. Wetmore, Rev. R. H. Whitaker, W. W. Cole, Theo. H. Hill and N. B. Bryan was appointed to secure and put in the field, at the earliest practicable period, a State Lecturer. The committee held an, informal meeting immediately after the adjournment of the State Council, and decided to offer the appointment to Mr. W. H. McKenzie, of Fayetteville, who, we, learn has accepted. Mr. McKenzie will take the field about the first of

The State Council instructed the Secretary to circulate 2000 copies of a memorial among the Subordinate Councils of the State for signatures which memorial will pray the General Assembly to pass a general bill, granting to the several counties the right to hold township elections once each year, to decide the question of license therein. While this body expressed its decided opposition to the pasage of any arbitrary prohibitory law, it urged with equal zeal the adoption of scuh measures as may lead to the enactment of a bill giving local prohibition whenever the people desire it, and no where else. In this we think the body acted prudently and wisely. During the session of the State Council two public meetings were held at the Presbyterian Church. The one on Thursday night was largely attended and General Robert B. Vance, member of Congress from the mountain district, delivered one of the very finest speehes of his life. A very large number of persons joined the Friends at its conclusion, and among them was Col. Jones, editor of the Statesville Intelligencer. A second public meeting was held on Friday morning, which was addressed by Rev. Dr. Roscoe Hooker. Quite a number joined at the conclusion of his speech. The delegates who went from this section of the State have had so much to say in praise of Statesville, and the hospitality of its good citizens, we are almost sorry that we had not joined and gons with them.

But, it is never too late to do good, and we hope to be among the favored ones, ere a great while; perhaps in time to go to Tarboro next November, where, we feel very certain Statesville hospitality will be fully duplicated, as we learn that brother Stamps, of the Enquirer, who was a delegate to the Statesville Council, will be the master of ceremonies on that occasion, We wish the Friends the most abundant success in their good work, whether we join them or not; and, with such men as the order has for its leaders, we ligest of laws as reported at this session feel certain that it will meet with suc-We hope we stand square on the tem-

Now For WATER. -The new Board of City Commissioners having been duly installed, 'we take this early opportunity of calling their attention to the great lack of water in the city, and before they commence any other legislation, we trust they will give this vital question their prompt and active consideration. It has been a long time since we have had a fire of any magnitude, and sincerely hope the time for such a disaster may be postponed indefinitely. But what security have we for such hope? None, and it may be, before the ink with which this article is written becomes dry, the alarm of fire will be heard, and if so, where can our fire companies procure water sufficient to done in ameliorating the sufferings of run their machines fifteen minutes? This is a serious question, and one put directly to the Commissioners, who are supposed to have the interest ef the city in their keeping.

Much has already been said and written on the subject of water worksnothing is left to be said or written. It is admitted by all that a supply of water should be turnished the city. How do the Commissioners propose to do this, and when?

THE CAPITOL SQUARE -The attention of the Keeper of the Capitol is called to the fact that it is time that he had learned that the grass in the Square THE NORTH CAROLINA SUNDAY should be moved. The grass was not for hay then let it go to seed, but if for a lawn this should never be permitted

RUMORED DEFALCATION AND AT-TEMPTED SUICIDE OF THE AGENT OF THE WESTERN RAIL ROAD AT FAYETTE-VILLE.—On yesterday a rumor from Fayetteville reached us that the Agent tion was adopted, approving of the of the Western Rail Road at that place, Mr. A. F. Marsh, had defaulted to the amount of $5,200, and bad attempted to commit suicide by taking poison, though he was still living at last accounts-yet his condition is considered critical. Mr. Marsh is about forty-five copy of the Constitution and By-laws years of age, of temperate habits, a strict member of the Baptist church, and enjoyed the full confidence of the entire community in which he resided. We hope that this rumor may turn out to be unfounded, or at least greatly exaggerated. We trust a thorough examination of his accounts may prove that his present difficulties arise rather from unfortunate complications, than a dishonesty of purpose. MAYOR'S COURT.-James Barnes, Charles Ligon and Ed Lane colored youths, were arraigned before the Mayor for disorderly conduct at the colored Christian Church, (Hayes) at a prayermeeting, being conducted by "Brother Hardy Cross." It appeared from the evidence, that Bro Cross, in the course of a most fervent supplication, used a "high-flown" word which struck Jim Barnes as very appropriate, and Jim, contrary to established custom, respon-ded "that's so." Tom Williams rebuked Jim for his bad behavior, then and there. After services were over the three named undertook to remind Jim of his conduct when a quarrel took place, hence the arrest. Tom, Charles and Ed each left $5 with the Mayor.

WORTHY OF IMITATION .- Mr. George Allen, of the well known firm of Geo. Allen & Co., Newbern, N. C., writes under date of 10th May, to the Principal of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford, N. C .: "I enclose as a "Memorial Offering," a contribution to Oxford Orphan Asylum of $25, and have entered the Institution as a subscriber to the American Agriculturist for 1873." How grateful this would be, could they or did they know it, to many noble hearts that rest in the graves, decorated with flowers on the day this "Memorial Offering" was presented! Let us cherish the memory of the gallant dead, but let us provide for their orphaned children,

THE BATTLEBORO ADVANCE .- The names of our cotemporaries of the Battleboro Advance were incorrectly printed yesterday, in the report of the Editorial Convention. The Advance was represented at Goldsboro by Messrs. James A. Williams and R. H. McGuire. Mr. John B. Hussey, the talented editor of the Piedmont Press, honored us with a visit last night.

rate historian than North Carolina. We have he history worthy of the name. We have no well written, authentic and attractive account of the historical events that have transpired in our State, from the landing of the colonial settlers on our soil in 1854 to the present time. The only work which approaches history of the State is that by Col. Jno. H. Wheeler, which is a most valuable compilation, and which contains more information relating to North Carolina than can be found in all similar publications combined.

Col. Wheeler's volume was published in 1851, and has found a place in every respectable library in the State. But it does not purport to be a history of the State, in the strict sense of that term. The author says in his pretace that he does not aspire to the position of historian. His purpose was, "to present a fair and truthful record of the facts illustrative of the early times of our beloved and venerable State; to preserve the names of those who have done her service in the field and Senate; and to collect valuable statistical information of her resources and products, thus affording data to other and abler hands to occupy the historic field, as yet unexplored." .stankett. #21

But no other abler hand has yet undertaken to weave from the mass of information gathered up by Colonel Wheeler, a connected narrative of the leading incidents in the drama which has been enacted upon our soil. And there is no prospect that the State will soon have a more faithful chronicler than the author of the "Historical Sketches of North Carolina From 1584

We made the announcement in our paper yesterday that Colonel Wheeler was preparing a new and enlarged edition of his history. We are glad to hear that his labors are drawing to a close and that the work will soon be

We do not know the plan of the new edition, but trust that it will embrace the history of the State to the close of the war at least-so that the record of the noble deeds and patriotic services of the Confederate soldiers of North hearts." Our dispatches yesterday reported the death of John B. Mordecai, wounded by W. Page McCarthy in the duel near Richmond on Friday last.

Mr. Mordecai has many relatives and friends in this State, who will be grieved to hear of his tragic fate.

The circumstances leading to this sad termination of a personal difficulty have been given in detail to our readers-so it is unnecessary to refer to them against

Mr. Mordecai was a young man in the prime of life, greatly esteemed in Richmond, and his death will cause much sympathy and sadness in that city, where he had many devoted friends.

the Wilmington Star says : "High on remembered that ex-United States Scnthe roll of the Arctic heroes must we ator John Pool was indicted at the last man who has come nearer solving the mystery of the open polar sea than any discoverer who has undertaken the task. The noble fellow died without accomplishing sun shines in eternal brilliancy from unclouded skies.

Let the memory of Hall be green forever in the hearts of all who cherish high endeavor and heroic courage."

The Wilmington Journal discusses the Atlantic and Great Western Canal, the Great Transportation Movement in the West and Our Indian Troubles. On the latter subject it says: "The telegrams announce that our troops were surprised, and that four soldiers have been killed and six wounded by the Modocs.

It is further announced that Captain Jack wore the uniform of the late Gen. Canby, whom he slew with his own hand. This piece of bravado, taken in connection with the fact also reported by telegram that our people were sending out squaws as scouts, would seem to indicate that the Indians, and not the whites, were on the aggressive. To say the least of it, it is a singular state of affairs when Federal scouts wear petticoats and their enemies wear Federal uniforms in open battle."

The Roanoke News of Wednesday, has a long and able editorial in layor of the County Subscription to the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad. The election on that measure came off yesterday, but it will be a day or two probably, before we can get the official returns.

Speaking of MEMORIAL DAY the Magnolia Monitor says: "No heart can be so callous, no foe can be so bitter as not to do reverence as he approaches the sad 'city of the dead,' where heroes sleep. They fought and lost-fought as never men fought before-fought with a devotion which is written on history's page of undaunted heroism, in red letters drained from the life-blood of the best, and truest, and bravest in the land. Their lives were given for their country, their immortal souls, let us hope and pray, are in the presence and keeping of God, but their memory remains with us to cherish, and with us let it ever remain as a sacred treasure, stored away in the most tender recesses of our

On the subject of the North Carolina Fertilizer Company, the Monitor says: "We published in the Monitor some weeks since an article on the subject of forming a North Carolina Fertilizer Company. We heartily endorsed the movement at the time, and are gratified that it'is meeting with great success. W. R. Griffith, Esq., who is getting up the Company, was in Magnolia on Friday, and we learned from him that over one hundred and thirty thousand dollars of the stock was already subscribed. We were glad to see our friends in Duplin, Sampson and Wayne giving their support so liberally to this enterprise. Our people can hardly realize the immense amount of money that is annually drained from the State by out side Insurance and Guano Companies. At the lowest calculation, three millions of dollars are expended every year for Guanos', and even more than that for Insurance. Over half the cotton crop is thus taken from, us and the large profits go to enrich distant communities, and to impoverish our own people. This movement to establish a Guano Company, may now be regarded a complete success. The character of the gentlemen who have taken stock in it is a guarantee that it cannot fail. No such array of names was ever before enlisted before in any similar enterprise. It is only thus bringing together the influence and capital of different localities, and cooperating that the people of the State can hope to accomplish anything for their own relief and protection. We congratulate the originators of this patriotic enterprise, in advance, on the establishment of the Company. It will afford the people a security against imposition, keep at home a large amount af capital, and promises a handsome dividend to the stockholders." The Elizabeth City Carolinian, Republican, rejoices over the deteat of C. W. Grandy, Jr., the present Radical office of Mayor of Elizabeth City. Mr. Grandy opposed the regular Republican nominee. The Carolinian says:

"The Municipal election on Monday in this city passed of quietly and satisfactorily. Mr. Grandy's total vote was only 164. He was defeated by 32 majority. As parties stand he got of white Republican votes 5, (including his own vote) of colored 44 votes, and of Democrats 115 votes. The most of the colored men who voted for him were deceived and made to believe they were voting for a true and good Republican. The Democrats voted for him, not because they had any confidence in, or admiration for the man, but simply to aid the bolting movement to break up and destroy the Republican organization. Of course Mr. Grandy is disappointed. He had counted on his election sure. But we happen to know something about him as a political calculator and manager. We knew he would be beaten. He lacks discretion, judgment, prudence. He has now twice tested his personal popularity before the people of his native town, and he has been twice defeated. Politically he isn't reliable. He won't do to tie to. Like the Western jockey's horse "his eyes is sot." He committed political felo de se. As he did this deliberately, let no one shed tears over his political grave." The Western Expositor compliments Judge Dick, who is now holding the Federal Court in Asheville. Speaking

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS. of the indictment against John Pool for Alluding to Hall's Arctic Expedition libel, the Expositor says: "It will be inscribe the name of C. F. Hall, the Fall term of Buncombe Court for having libeled Hon. A. S. Merrimon, by circulationg a defamatory publication under his franking privilege as a member of Congress. Some time after he was indicted, he was arrested, as we have his cherished purpose. But he fell short | been informed; but he failed to put in of it just a little. Seven degrees of lat- an appearance at the Spring term, itude would have placed him where the as others charged with crime are required to do. We learn, however, that he did condescend to write a letter to the prosecuting officer, stating in substance that it was not convenient for him to attend Court this Spring, and thereupon the case was continued.

Now we would ask, very respectfully, why Mr. Pool was not called out? Is he, in contemplation of law, entitled to any more consideration than other people? Certainly the law has no favorites, but the administrators thereof may have. and this, we opine, is the reason the ex-Senator was not called out."

The Madison Enterprise refers as follows to the hoax practiced on the New York World by a correspondent writing from Rockingham county:

"We notice in the Raleigh Sentinel, a long communication copied from the New York World, purporting to be a correspondence from Wentworth, N. C. It gives a long account of curious and interesting excavations made at Tuscahawsah, on the banks of Dan River, in Rockingham county. The writer commences by giving a minute and graphic discription of Tuscahawsah, and its surroundings. He then, in company with Professor Handyside, Judge Petrie, Dr. Marsh, and several negroes, goes down into the earth, and brings to view a rare and extensive collection of curiosities, which belong to a race of people who lived far back in the forgotten past. This correspondent tells us several barrels of these curiosities have been sent to the Smithsonian Institute, some have been left at the Express Office, and others at the Bank of Wentworth, for safe keeping. (Wentworth has no bank or express office.) Who are Professor Handsside, Judge Petre and Dr. Marsh? Neither of these gentlemen have ever been heard of in this county before. We can very safely pronounce the whole concern a hoax from beginning to end."

BUYTHEBEST SOLUBLE SEA ISLAND GUANO!

State Fair Premium at Wilmington for the Largest Amount of Cotton to an Acre. GOLDSBORO, Wayne County, N. C., November 23rd, 1872.

JOHN H. POWELL, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—The Soluble Sea Island Guano purchased of you this season was used by DEAR SIR—The Soluble Sea Island Guano purchased of you this season was used by the side of three others, and has given me more satisfaction than any of the others. The Soluble Sea Island Guano was the one used upon the acre of land upon which my son raised the cotton upon which he took his State premium for the greatest amount of cotton to an acre; and I am informed by the Chairman of the Committee that had he entered for the largest amount of cotton to the acre, premiums open to all ages, he would have also taken that premium, beating all 150 lbs. I am better pleased with it than any other Guano I have ever used on cotton, and I shall use it in preference to others next season for my cotton crop.

EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C., December 12th, 1872.

Messrs. R. W. L. RAISIN & Co., Baltimore:
I bought of Messrs. Branch, Herbeit & Co., last Spring, one ton of your Soluble Sea Island Guano for myself and three tons for other parties, and I find them all well pleased with it, and say it is the best Guano, and paid them better than any they ever used. The ton I used myself was put in cotton by the side of two other guanos, and I am willing to say that I should buy the So.uble Sea Island Guano in preference to any that I have used since the war.

Very respectfully,.

SELMA, N. C., November 12th, 1872.

W. H. AVERA, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—The ten bags Soluble Sea Island Guano more than met my expectations I consider it equal to Peruvian for cotton. It paid me over 100 per cent. I. more than doubled the crop. My neighbors who bought it are highly pleased, and will use it in preference to any other when it can be had. Hope you will keep a supply the coming

To S. J. PARHAM: The Soluble Sea Island Guano purchased of y u was used on tobacco and cotton by me by the side of Peruvian Guano, Stonewall & * * * *. I like it much better than either, and I observed a marked difference in favor of the Sea Island. Shall use in the future.

HENDERSON, Granvitle county. HENRY BURRELL, Esq., has stated to us that he made a test this present year's obacco crop, using two other higher-priced guanos, but 's convinced that the Soluble is a Island Guano is the cheapest guano he has ever purchased, and shall use it again.

YANCEYVILLE, Caswell County, N. C. December 6th, 1872.

Captain W. P. ROBINSON, Captain W. P. ROBINSON,

DEAR SIB-In reply to your inquiry as to how I liked the Sea Island Guano I got of you, I wish to say that I applied it, 200 pounds to the acre, alongside of Peruvian, Pacific Guano and Gilham's Tobacco Fertilizer in equal quantities; it stands the drouth better than either of the above fertilizers. It matured better on the hill and cured better and more yellow than either of the other fertilizers used. I think it is a splendid fertilizer Yours, respectfully, MARCELLUS MIMMS. and I expect to use it next season.

WILSON, N. C., January 11th, 1873.

GENTS—I used this season, on my cotton crops about 15 tons of your Soluble Sea Island Guano, testing it by the side of Guanape and Vegitator, and up to the time of the heavy washing rains last of June, I was equally pleased with its action as of the Guanape and better pleased than with the Vegitator. It is reported that Mr. Samuel Mabe and his son, ten or 12 years old, were drowned at Seven Island Ford, one and a half miles above Danbury, Stokes county, on last Saturday. They left Danbury, on their way home, and were last seen near the Ford, Diligent search has been made, but nothing has been heard from them. The river was flush at the time, and the supposition is they attempted to cross, and were swept away by the rapid stream. So says the Madison Enterprise.

Says the Wilmington Journal in its ssue of Wednesday: "Several cars, loaded with bacon, from Cincinnati, arrived here vesterday from Huntington, on the Ohio river. They are to be forwarded to-day to Charleston and Savannah, to which points they are consigned. Huntington is on the Ohio river, 671 miles from Wilmington, and these shipments of bacon came all of the way through, via Hanover Junction, without breaking bulk. As the W. & W. R. R., have a through freight schedule on this route, and these cars will be returned to Huntington in a lew days, we suggest to the merchants here that it would be an excellent opportunity for making shipments of our produce to Cincinnati.

Says the Asheville Expositor of the 8th inst:

"A large number of Cherokee Indians are in attendance on the Federal Court We are informed that a man named Sweatland, and another, were sent out from Washington some years since, to pay over a large amount of money to the Cherokees.

After investigation, the assistant District Attorney, Major Ecwin, concluded that the Indians had been cheated, and sent a bill against them, and one General Blunt of Washington, D. C, and divers others there and in North Carolina, for a conspiracy to defraud the dudians. The case stands for trial on the Circuit Court docket.

Among the number of Indians, is the old chief, Flyingsquirrel. It is remarkable, that neither he nor any of the fullbloods, with few exceptions, it is said, have ever learned to talk English, though their small settlement is surrounded by whites, with whom they are constantly thrown. On the other hand, very few whites ac quire their language. The interpreters are generally half-breeds, and the examination of Indian witnesses is conducted through them. It is said to be very tedious."

M. Riggenback, the engineer, has discovered a new system of propelling railway trains along very steep inclines, by means of ordinary rails and without cogged wheels. The speed by this method will be very little less than that attained on level surfaces. The new system will be employed on the projected Righi Scheideck line in Switzerland.

Says the Cincinnati Commercial: "The State of Ohio is to enter the lobby at Washington with $3,000 cash in hand to plead for the payment of the Morgan raid claims. The 'raid' is to be transterred to Washington. It is a raid upon the treasury. Morgan's raid was light amusement compared with this." The Troy Times says that the United States is at peace with all the world except the Modocs and the organ grinders. Incidents of the Recent Duel.

We had a conversation with Major Poe, Chief of Police, yesterday about the part he played in the recent duel. The Major informed us that the first ink ling he had of it was through a police telegram from the upper station, which he received at ten minutes before six o'clock, and which merely inquired, "Have you heard anything about a duel that is to take place near Oakwood cemetery ?"

While telegraping back to learn what was known about it at the station, a gentleman came in and requested him to stop a duel between Mr. Mordecai and Mr. McCarty, but he could give no information except that it was to come off near the cemtery. This was within five minutes of the time fixed for the fight. He obtained a horse and hurried as fact as possible in that direction. The manner by which he found the trail and followed it was worthy of a practiced scout. When he reached the almost inaccessible field, he at once said to those present: "Gentlemen, you are all my prisoners; but as these poor wounded men must first be taken care of, I will take your word to report to me in the morning. All readily pledged themselves and accepted the parole. The chief then approached Mr. Mordecai, who appeared to be suffering most, and who excited his sympathy, when the fol lowing conversation ensued between

"I regret that for your sake I did not arrive in time to stop this," said the chief. "It would have been useless, Major, and it is better as it is; for now but one worthless life is lost, whereas had this meeting not taken place we would in all probability have met in the street, and then some innocent person might have suffered from our shots. No, it is best as it is; you could not have prevented

Major Poe says he was very calm, and he could not but admire his thoughtfulness for others, and noble forgetfulness of self at that critical moment. From what Major Poe told us, we feel sure that he did all that man could do under the circumstances. Had the warning been more timely, that meeting might have been prevented; but would the matter have ended there ? Certainly not .- Richmond Enquirer of the 14th inst.

The Turks are not at all a progressive people. So it is supposed. What are we to think of this, then ? "Miss Wadsworth, a graduate of one of the Philadelphia medical colleges, has been appointed physician to the Sultan." Miss Wadsworth is a native of Franklin. New Hampshire, and must be an American girl of pluck and spirit. Pastry and Cakes of every Variety. For making
Buckwheat Cakes it has no rival, Those that have tried it, say it is decidedly the VEHY BEST. Feeling considerably flattered at the increasing demand where put in competition to so many kinds now on the market, that I shall in future manufacture it on a much greater scale.

It is the only Baking Powder manufactured in the South, and I guarantee it to give as much satisfaction as any other.

Many the message, shooting
Along each slender line,
And it seems as if every message
Must have left some voice behind;
Must have set the belis to swinging That I hear in silvery chime.

Tidings of death are they sending?
So hushed the sad refrain?
Now it quickens, merrily quickens,
And it peals a blither strain!
Of its joy some heart is telling;
Ring, O bells, glad bells, again!

Here by the track I am asking-These varying sounds so blend— Whether God, who wills for His children All evils toward good shall tend,
May not hear our joys and sorrows
In like harmony ascend.

Over the marsh by the railroad The wild winds sweep to-day, And they touch the telegraph wires, And a strange weird tune they play, Till the air is sweet with harpings.
And with church bells far away. Roston Journal.

The Polaris Expedition.

WHAT DR. HAYES SAYS. Dr. L. L. Hayes, the arctic traveler, was "interviewed" on Saturday about the death of Captain Hall of the Polaris, The Doctor thought that there must have been dissension on the vessel and that the persons who relate the story of Hall's death and of their own marvellous voyage very possibly have left the ship after a successful mutiny. Dr. Hayes thinks it possible that Hall was murdered, as appoplexy is not common in high lattitudes, and Hall certainly did not have the appearance of an apo-plectic person. Should Dr. Hayes's surmises prove correct the Polaris romance will assume a tragic aspect. It is now simply an unfortunate occurrence; then it would be a crime. Let us hope that the story as first sent may prove to be correct. The Secretary of the Navy, however, should without delay have the tacts inquired into, so that even a doubt on this already sad subject may not remain in the public mind. - World

WHAT HENRY GRINNELL SAYS. Henry Grinnell, long prominent in connection with Arctic expeditions, expressed the opinion in an interview Saturday, that Captain Buddington and his men, having plenty of provisions, can live comfortably on the Polaris and will safely return by the middle of Sertember. He thought Captain Hall like ly died a natural death, as he was heavily built, with a short neck, and proba bly subject to appoplexy. He did not credit the theory of his having been murdered. Captain Hall had done as much as he expected him to accomplish. It would be very proper for the govern. ment to send a vessel to the mouth of Smith's Sound, if the Polaris is not heard from this year. WHAT THE NEW YORK COMMERCIAL

BAYS. The failure of Capt. Hall's expedition is but one more item in the long catalogue of dismal enterprises intended to wrest from nature the secrets which she refuses to reveal to man, but always Express, : : : : ending in disaster and defeat. Cabot. Frobisher, Parry, Rae, Ross, Franklin,
De Haven, Kan, McClintock and Hall,
No goods will be received after that hour.
J. C. SPRIGGS have all failed. Had they succeeded, they would have settled a problem in geographical science and solved one or two of the mysteries of the world-and that would have been all. But all have been repulsed, baffled, starved, frozen, and many of the brave men who followed intrepid leaders have laid down their lives with Hall and Sir John Franklin, with no good result to the world, and only with the consolation for themselves that they met death bravely in a foolish cause.

Interesting Females-Beauties of the Modoc she. The female Modoc is thus portrayed by the correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle: You do us grave injustice in remarks about killing squaws, They were killed in the fight-one at least—and the only one killed by sol-diers. They fight like devils, load gros and are as dangerous as the bucks, and should share the same fate. No squaws have been killed out of battle. Four are now fed and protected at this camp, taken since the fight ended. They will not be harmed, though at the first chance they will flee to the Modocs, with arms and ammunition if they can get a chance to steal any. In the event of another fight they would return to our lines and do the same thing over again. Remember, they are not white women, but flends guilty of torturing and murdering every wounded soldier who tell in their hands, and of horribly mutila ting the dead. Remember the tate of the soldier of the 21st infantry, wounded and left on the field of battle on the 17th of January. The squaws tortured him in every conceivable way all night long, until death put an end to his sufings in the morning. This they admitted to be so during intervals employed in making peace efforts. Don't waste any from there is entirely too good to be true. It is of a family living in Auvergne, who are rapidly developing into birds, or angels, or some strange variety not yet determined—Peter Wilkens' winged men and women, or Lord Lytton's coming race mayben. In this re-markable family the muscles of the trung and upper extremities are greatly SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR enlarged, the clavicles and scapula abnormally so, and the breast is pigeon. shaped. A post-mortem examination of one member of the family showed the clavicle to be one third larger in didiameter than the corresponding bones of the largest men. The scapula or shoulder blade was nearly twice as long as the average scapula, and was bounded by layers and bundles of large muscles. The sternum descended to within two inches of the umbili cus, and was more than proportionally widened, and the pectoral and intercos tal muscles were enormously developed.

A living son of the deceased approached nearer to the bird type than his father, and even displayed new abnormalities in the shape of third eyelids and rudimentary wings, the latter consisting of a triangular flap of the skin, forming a continuous connection between the up-per portion of the arms and back. As soon as natural selection comes into play, we may expect, therefore a winged W. O. STRONACH

This is strictly a HOME LIFE COMPANY. Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity, It offers every

SUBSTANTIAL BENEFIT hat Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions. Another importan tract to be considered is, that the Wilmington Live has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that These unquestionable facts should com-mend this company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of donars received for Life pre-miums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric capitalists of the North. It there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should INSURE AT HOME

this were more than sufficient. THE WILMINGTON LIFE

aas excellent special features. It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Fe-male risks; and its Policies are incontes-table after Five Years. Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously. Its motto is:

SECOND.

To reduce the actual outlay of its members for their policies to the lowest possible rate. To accomplish this, it allows him to retain from 20 to 30 per cent. of the list premium as a permanent credit or lo a, and to retain from each subsequent premium that portion of the previous year's full premium actually proved to be surplus; so that at no time does the Company take from him a higher actual premium than is needed to carry the lisk for the year, and provide the reinsurance fund. It is strictly Mutual. Nothing is diverted to stockholders, and each member has his incurance at its exact cost to the Company. Its rate of expense has been from the beginning less than that of other companies.
